

The Friends of Barry Bergstrom are proud to present a very special concert event

Benefit for Barry

Nov. 6, 2010
Noon – 5:00pm at the Emerald of Siam
in Richland, WA

No admission fee. Donations welcome.

Barry Bergstrom is a well-known and loved musician from the Tri-Cities who has toured and/or recorded with internationally recognized jazz bands, including the Harry James Orchestra, the Glenn Miller Orchestra, and the Cab Calloway Orchestra. Recently, Barry has been living and playing in the Tri-Cities area, with many of the area's best-loved jazz players.

Unfortunately, Barry has had a series of recent health issues and is undergoing at least 3 surgeries within the span of just 5 or 6 months. Through all this, he's had to put playing his saxophone on the back burner for quite some time. For a professional musician like Barry, this means no income and no way to pay the bills.

A number of Tri-Cities musicians have come together to raise some money to help Barry out, by hosting an all-day benefit concert. Seven groups will perform throughout the day, and after 5:30, we're going to open up the place for a monster jam session until 8:30pm, for any and all musicians who would like to join in.

The concert is open to the public. There are no admission fees or cover charges. We will be collecting donations for Barry throughout the event. The music will be great and it's all for a good cause. For anyone who cannot attend the concert, donations may be made to the Barry Bergstrom Donation Account at any US Bank.

We are really hoping people from the community – musicians and music lovers alike – will step up and help a person in need get back on his feet.
